SCIENTIFIC COUNCIL PURPOSES

In order to enhance the Board of Directors' ability to manage the affairs of the Society, some of the activities of the Society conducted outside the auspices of the Board and Committees shall be divided among the Scientific Councils established by the Board. Councils are responsible for:

- executing the responsibilities assigned to the Council by the Board of Directors
- providing specialty expertise / guidance / content to the Board, Committees, and Society programs and services
- assessing and representing the discipline-specific needs of the Council members to the Board
- developing proposals for programs and services to meet Council members' needs and to further the Society's strategic goals
- working with the Committees and staff to implement approved proposals in accordance with established Society policies and procedures
- identifying opportunities to collaborate with other Scientific Councils and with other organizations on projects of mutual interest and benefit

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

Operating Board

Each Council shall be governed by a Council Operating Board which shall consist of three officers (a Chair, a Vice-Chair, a Past Chair)

The Vice-Chair is elected by those ISHLT members who have designated that Council as their Primary or Secondary Council. The Vice-Chair and the Past-Chair serve as one-year term each. The Chair serves a two-year term. The Vice-Chair rotates into the Chair position and the Chair rotates into the Past-Chair position. Thus, each officer will serve a total of 4 years in the three positions.

The Leader of each of the Council's Workforces shall also serve on the Council Operating Board.

A Board Liaison appointed by the Board of Directors will serve as an ex-officio member of the Council Operating Board and shall be included on all Council conference calls, meetings, and communications.

Each Council Operating Board is directly accountable to the ISHLT Board of Directors.

The Vice-Chair and Past Chair shall also serve as Secretary and shall be responsible for taking and distributing minutes of the meetings and conference calls of the Council Operating Board and Council members.

Council Officers may not serve concurrently on ISHLT Committees, and current / past Board members may not serve as Council Chairs. Council Officers may not serve as Chair, Co-Chair, or Project Lead / Sub-

Committee Lead, of any Council-sponsored project or activity during their terms of office so as to avoid conflicts of interest and to be able to provide oversight and guidance to those Council members who are engaged in such projects. Exceptions MAY be made for those who are elected Vice-Chair while in the middle of leading a project, providing that project will be completed prior to their rotating into the Chair position. Exceptions may also be made for Councils with fewer than 200 Primary members. For such Councils, the Past Chair may also serve as Chair, Co-Chair, or Project Lead / Sub-Committee Lead of a Council-sponsored project or activity if no other suitable individual can be found.

Workforces

Each Council Operating shall create those Workforces mandated by the Board of Directors and any additional Workforces the Council Operating Board deems necessary. The various Workforces which are mandated by the Board and are to be maintained within each Council shall include but are not limited to the following:

- * Education Workforce
- * Standards and Guidelines (S&G) Workforce

Each Workforce is directly accountable to the Council Chair and is responsible for addressing Council activities within their specified area of endeavor. The Leader of the S&G Workforce shall serve as a member of the ISHLT S&G Committees.

ELECTIONS/APPOINTMENTS

Council Officers

Every other year prior to the Annual Meeting, those Councils members who have designated a given Council as their Primary or Secondary one shall elect one person to fill the position of Council Vice-Chair in accordance with established ISHLT policy and procedures. Candidates for the Vice-Chair position must have designated the Council as their Primary or Secondary one.

Should the Vice-Chair be unable to complete his/her term, the Council will conduct an election to select a new Vice-Chair. Should the Chair be unable to complete his/her term in the first year, the Past-Chair will serve as Chair until a new Chair is elected. Should the Chair be unable to complete his/her term in the second year, the Vice-Chair will rotate into the position of Chair and will serve the remainder of the Chair's term and then serve his/her full two-year term as Chair, and an election will be held to elect a new Vice-Chair.

Council Workforce Leaders

The Leader of each Council Workforce shall be appointed by the Council Officers for a three-year term. Council Workforce Leaders must have designated the Council as their Primary or Secondary one. Council Workforces may have additional members as deemed necessary by the Council Officers and Workforce Leaders. Such individuals may be appointed by the Council Officers or the Workforce Leader, as determined by each individual Council. Such members must have designated the Council as their Primary or Secondary one.
